Intro to Law

For High School Age Students

To appreciate life in America, you need to understand the LAW!

Available for the first time to high school students, this program will explain what the law is, how it is made, and how judges can change the law.

This interactive and thought provoking program will help students to understand how the judicial branch interprets, creates and modifies the legal rules.

- Emphasizes logical thinking and writing
- Traces the sources of our laws
- Introduces the separate function of lawmakers and courts
- Uses primary and secondary sources
- Addresses many Virginia SOL requirements for U.S. Government
